

Why, What, and How: Let's Get Ahead!
Are You Ready?

These are very unique and comprehensive offerings from PLC Associates, Inc., which respond specifically to the new opportunities we have as we engage in the 20/21 academic year.

We have designed targeted offerings to meet the needs of our districts from the perspective of both leaders and educators. These sessions are designed to proactively assist our schools make key decisions, prepare, be ready and execute as we move into our 20/21 academic year.

Interested: Please contact PLC Associates, Inc. Penny Ciaburri pciaburri@plcassociates.com or contact the PLC Associates you are currently working with! These are the offerings districts are asking for!

Our District Leadership Offerings:

Key Questions To Ask...What Should School Look Like Now?!

Our PLC Facilitators will walk you through the key questions we must discuss and plan for so that we are comprehensively prepared in all aspects of delivering various educational models in 20/21.

Leadership Strategy Sessions...Into 20/21

These sessions will assist leadership in reviewing the key plans, goals, strategies, and key messages as we move into 20/21. This important opportunity allows everyone to be "same page" as our schools enter into a challenging year.

For Our School Leaders and Educators:

Transforming Learning- High-Quality, Student-Centered Distance Learning

This powerful five session series has received rave reviews and provides in-depth content and current, relevant information in utilizing a number of technology applications interfaced with high-quality instruction, delivered in online and in person formats. A must for all staff...how to engage our students in new models.

Drill Down Sessions: PK-2, 3-5, MS and HS, Special Education and Multiple Language Learners

Our PLC Team will now do exactly that "drill down" very specifically and provide grade levels and content area educators with information specific to their area. This includes the unique strategies needed for success with our special education students and multiple language learners. Choose your area...each are five powerful sessions.

Start Strong...Precision in Implementation

This offering provides two PLC Facilitators, steeped in technology applications and instruction who will stay with you, assist leadership and be highly accessible for immediate planning and problem solving as challenges come up.